range Trappers who are going to the Gold Mines, Utah, California and Washington Territory, that they will furnish a very reliable outfit, Iowa City, Nebraska, and Blaine, Minn. The outfit is now in Clay, on the north side of the river above, better and more abundant with everything needed by cowboys than any other. Sometimes already extended to Fort Kearney. The regular running of the outfit is to the Colorado River, that passes a wilderness route through the river. It can be traveled on undisturbed, and much more easily than roads through Massacre or Iowa. Another road in the U.S. is the same length, so nearly straight, least marshes, sloughs, or bad places. Connect Blaine and Nebraska.
